

Curriculum Vitae

Name	James Roberts
E-mail	isdoes@gmail.com
Date of Birth	2 nd April 1984
Education	1996-2001 Bootham School, York (scholarship place) 2001-2005 Corpus Christi College, Cambridge
Qualifications	GCSE Art (A*), Biology (A*), Chemistry (A*), English (A*), English Literature (A*), French (A*), History (A*), Latin (A*), Maths (A*), Physics (A*), Drama (B) A Levels Art (A), English Literature (A), Maths (A), Physics (A) AS Levels Further Maths (A) AE Award English (Distinction) BA English (1 st Class Honours)
Work experience	Temporary work at Tesco, York (2004) Placement at York EMC Services (2000)
Projects	collected on personal website, www.hirezfox.com/jimrob Theatre Member of Corpus Drama Society, the Fletcher Players (2001-5) Co-wrote Freshers' Play, A Turn-Up for the Books (2001) Wrote and directed Possibility , a short verse drama, at the Corpus Playroom (2002) Adapted, designed and directed medieval morality play Mankind at the Corpus Playroom (2003) Writing Music journalism, published in print (The Cambridge Student) and on the web (gridface.com) (1999-2005) Several comedy sketch shows and short pilots (2005) Comics Wrote, drew and regularly web-published a comic strip (2001-2004) Design Designed publicity materials (posters, flyers and programmes) for the Fletcher Players and others (2001-2005) Design editor and artist for poetry journal Filament (2004-5) Music Composed, recorded and produced music in various styles, including tracks and remixes published via Pie Head and Isonauta Records (1997-2005)
Skills and aptitudes	Proficient in IT (Microsoft Office, Outlook, and Frontpage, Adobe Photoshop, Cubase VST); can code in HTML and CSS Understanding of sound technology Writing in various styles Working independently within deadlines and requirements Capable in positions of responsibility